OPPOSITION TO PETITIONER'S
MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF WRIT OF MANDATE

Time: 9:30 a.m.

Dept.: 82

Petition and Complaint filed:
December 3, 2019

1 I, JEFFERY L. ANDERSON, declare:

2 1. I am an Attorney at Law for Young, Minney & Corr, LLC, attorneys of record for
3 Respondents and Defendants, THE ACCELERATED SCHOOLS (“TAS”) in this action. I am
4 personally familiar with the facts set forth herein, and, if called to do so, I could competently testify
5 thereto. I make this declaration in support of the Opposition Brief filed on behalf of TAS to Petitioner
6 ADRIAN RISKIN’s (“Petitioner” or “Riskin”) Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of 7 Petitioner for Writ of Mandate.

8 2. In my preparation of TAS’s papers responding this Petitioner’s papers herein, I have 9 come across several names (with associated email addresses utilized by Petitioner to post information
10 on his web blogs (much of it inflammatory and verging on defamatory) regarding TAS. Those 11 include:

12 3. I have reviewed screen shots of blog posts by Petitioner that were taken on February 1, 13 2021, from Petitioner’s blog found at michaelkohlhaas.org. Attached hereto as Exhibit G, and 14 incorporated herein by this reference are true and correct copies of the screenshots taken on 15 February 1, 2021, from Petitioner’s blog found at michaelkohlhaas.org.

16 4. Petitioner’s counsel, Robert Skeels emailed a letter dated January 12, 2021, to myself
17 and my co-counsel, Wayne K. Strumpfer, asserting that Petitioner was “in possession of dozens of 18 specific records, from collateral sources, that TAS either is or should be in possession of” using that 19 allegation to also assert that “their absence from the records production is seemingly dispositive that 20 TAS did not exercise due diligence and conduct a thorough search for responsive records.” (Email
21 from Robert Skeels to TAS’s counsel, the undersigned and Wayne K. Strumpfer, dated January 12,
22 2021 (with its pdf.doc attachment) that is attached as Exhibit N to the Declaration of Robert D. Skeels
23 that was filed herein on January 22, 2021 (“Skeels Decl.”), in support of Petitioner’s Memorandum of 24 Points and Authorities in Support of Petition for Writ of Mandate.)

25 5. In a good faith effort to defuse the elaborate game of “Gotcha” being orchestrated by 26 Petitioner against TAS regarding its alleged failure to fully respond to the PRA requests at issue, on 27 January 13, 2021, the undersigned sent an email to Petitioner’s counsel requesting that Petitioner
28 disclose the “dozens” of allegedly improperly withheld documents so TAS could determine if the

1 documents are indeed responsive, non-exempt, records and if so, provide an opportunity for TAS to
2 attempt to determine how it happened that those particular documents were not found and disclosed to
3 Petition in TAS's production of records on October 30, 2020. A true and correct copy of the email
4 dated January 13, 2021, from the undersigned to Petitioner's counsel, Robert Skeels, is attached hereto
5 as Exhibit H, and is incorporated herein by this reference.

6 6. As acknowledged in Paragraph 18 of the Declaration of Robert Skeels filed on 7 January 22, 2021, on January 14, 2021, Mr. Skeels called the undersigned and spoke for 22 minutes
8 regarding topics including "the issue of the collateral documents." (Skeels Decl., Para. 18.)
9 Ultimately, Mr. Skeels never responded to the undersigned's entirely reasonable written request that
10 Petitioner provide the documents in dispute in order to facilitate TAS providing a specific response,
11 prior to briefing before the court, as to TAS's position regarding the documents at issue.

12 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is 13 true and correct.

14 Executed on this 19th day of February, 2021, in Sacramento, California.

EXHIBIT G

Our main mission has two parts:

1. to collect and publish as many documents as possible about municipal politics in Los Angeles, with somewhat of a focus on Business Improvement Districts in Los Angeles:
 - Local document storage — Older documents are stored locally, before it became clear that the volume we were obtaining precluded this.
 - Our collection on Archive.Org — All records obtained since 2016 are stored offsite on Archive.Org. This is better for any number of reasons. Search in collection by BID or just browse!
2. to use the information and understanding we gain from those documents to try to change those aspects of City government, BIDs, and their enablers of which we disapprove. Inflammatory mockery and filing complaints against transgressors are two of our main tools.
3. to provide aid, comfort, and encouragement to local movements whose goals we agree with. Didn't start out with this in mind, but it seems to be happening, so let's go!

I'M A CONVICTED FELON, FOR GOD'S SAKE.
WHY WOULD ANYONE EXPECT ME OR ANY
ENTITY ASSOCIATED WITH ME TO COMPLY
WITH A LAW THAT DOESN'T EVEN HAVE A DAMN CRIMINAL PENALTY?!!

THE DEEPLY FELT MORAL PRECEPTS OF PARTNERSHIP TO UPLIFT
COMMUNITIES CHARTER SCHOOLS FOUNDER AND CONVICTED
FELON REF RODRIGUEZ STILL GUIDE THE SCHOOLS HE CREATED.

And lo! Just yesterday, TAS's metaphorically mobbed up lawyer Wayne K. Strumpfer of privatizing powerhouse law firm Young Minney & Corr, who's basically a liar and enabler of outlawry but evidently knows a losing position when his clients manage to back themselves into one, sent me a letter utterly and abjectly capitulating to my demand!

But before he got around to the utter abjection Dr. Strumpfer went on and on and on explaining to me that The Accelerated Schools actually did nothing wrong, that I pretty much made everything up, that his clients only acted according to the very highest motivations, and that requiring people to sign in to attend meetings is how TAS prevents school shootings! And I guess that that's working because as far as I know they haven't had any.

On that subject, it's interesting that Strumpfer doesn't say a word about the fact that TAS chooses to have its meetings on school grounds during school hours when schoolchildren are present even after parents have been pleading with the board literally for years to have meetings in the evening so that working people have a chance to attend. One might think that having meetings at times when no kids were around would be a more effective way to protect the kids than having people sign a piece of paper, but admittedly I know nothing whatsoever about whatever kind of eleven dimensional galaxy brain hypercrapola in which these TAS people and their shyster lawyer have earned an average of 2.7 Ph.Ds each.⁴

In any case Dr. Wayne finally gets around to the actual point, which is that they don't want to get sued by me so dammit, they concede everything! The only actual concrete effect of this concession⁵ is that if they ever require people to sign in to their meetings I can sue them without giving them notice or even asking them to stop. Which I totally will do, by the way! So that's a little victory over the satanic minions of privatization. Read on for a complete transcription of Wayne K. Strumpfer's jittery little surrender letter!

Re: Your Cease and Desist Letter to The Accelerated Schools Board

Dear Mr. [Kohlhaas]:

Our office serves as general counsel for The Accelerated Schools Board. On December 18, 2019, you delivered a letter via email that demands "The Accelerated Schools cease and desist from violating the Brown Act as described below and to request that, in order to avoid costly and unnecessary litigation," The Accelerated Schools Board respond "with an unconditional commitment to so cease and desist."

Your letter claims The Accelerated Schools Board violated the Brown Act at their October 24, 2019, meeting when you were informed by an employee of school that you were required to sign your name to a sheet in order to be admitted to the part of campus where the meeting was being held.

IF MY CLIENT, THE ACCELERATED SCHOOLS, FOLLOWS THE LAW LIKE YOU SO SELFISHLY INSIST THEY DO THEN SCHOOL SHOOTERS ARE GOING TO VICIOUSLY MURDER THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN BUT NEVERTHELESS WE WILL DO AS YOU SAY AND THE BLOOD OF THOSE SLAUGHTERED INNOCENTS WILL BE ON YOUR GUILTY HANDS, KOHLHAAS!

METAPHORICALLY MOBBED-UP CHARTER SHILL LAWYER AND SELF-PROCLAIMED DOCTOR WAYNE KEVIN STRUMPFER ARGUING THAT IF IT'S LEGAL TO KILL PEOPLE IN SELF DEFENSE OR DEFENSE OF OTHERS THEN IT'S CERTAINLY LEGAL TO VIOLATE THE BROWN ACT FOR THE SAME DAMN REASONS.

In any case Dr. Wayne finally gets around to the actual point, which is that they don't want to get sued by me so dammit, they concede everything! The only actual concrete effect of this concession⁵ is that if they ever require people to sign in to their meetings I can sue them without giving them notice or even asking them to stop. The Accelerated Schools is a California nonprofit public benefit corporation that operates public charter schools. As required in Education Code Section 47604.1, The Accelerated Schools Board of Directors complies with the Brown Act. Government Code Section 54953.3 states a

And lo! Just yesterday, TAS's metaphorically mobbed up lawyer Wayne K. I MEAN SURE, WE DIDN'T GET FORMAL BROWN ACT TRAINING OR ADVICE FROM ANYONE WHO ACTUALLY UNDERSTANDS ANYTHING ABOUT IT BUT I PERSONALLY LED MY TEAM IN SELF-TRAINING BY RECORDING MYSELF READING THE WIKIPEDIA ARTICLE ABOUT IT OUT LOUD AND THEN REQUIRING THEM TO PLAY IT TO THEMSELVES REPEATEDLY WHILE THEY SLEPT.

GALAXY-BRAINED FOUNDIER RUBEN ALONZO OF EXCELENCIA CHARTER CONSPIRACY DOES NOT NEED EXPERTS TO EXPLAIN LAWS BECAUSE HE'S AN MIT-CERTIFIED GENIUS AND THE EXPERTS ALL WENT TO LOYOLA MARYMOUNT OR SOMETHING.

It turns out that in June 2018 the United Teachers of Los Angeles sent a letter to Ruben Alonzo, galaxy-brained creepy-stalky founder of the co-locational privatizer conspiracy, known as Excelencia Charter Academy, demanding that his organization cease, desist, and cut it the heck out with all the Brown Act violations they had been getting up to. This story is revealed by a collection of emails I recently

Excelencia Charter Academy is yet another creepy little charter school run by yet another shockingly unqualified creepy little galaxy-brained grifter, this one known as Ruben Alonzo, going about the place making creepy little announcements of delusionally impending disruptive excellence while lining his creepy little pockets with public money¹ at the expense of the actual human children that the state legislature, for reasons they're going to have to answer for eventually, has seen fit to place into his care.

Ah, friends! Remember how Juli Quinn, the chair of the board of directors of that in-the-process-of-being-dismantled charter conspiracy known as The Accelerated Schools, got all mad and stuff that a bunch of people who in her mind ought to be grateful to her for her condescension and great-white-saviorism were not only not grateful but they were vocally and visibly angry?

And in her rage she resigned from her position on the board and slunk back to Palos Perverdes or whatever white supremacist stronghold she's presently calling home? Well, all that did happen. And then, because it turns out that she's too cheap to hire a good crisis communications outfit or maybe it just didn't occur to her that she needed one, she went and sent out an extraordinarily kooky and unintentionally revealing mass email to the school staff outlining her vision for what the school should be.

And it's kooky, it's kookier than I'd have thought. Too kooky to need commentary. It's transcribed below. Oh, I guess I will say that it's really disconcerting to read something this delusionally detached from educational reality, so clearly written by someone who has no idea what it takes to teach children, by someone who thinks it's only necessary to say words like excellent, joyous, and nimble to make them be true, and realize that someone somewhere thought it was OK to place actual human children into this person's care. It's not OK.

I WANT THE ACCELERATED SCHOOLS TO BE THE KIND OF PLACE WHERE BOARD MEMBERS CAN EXPLOIT OUR POOR AND PUTATIVELY POWERLESS VICTIMS WHILE USING WORDS LIKE EXCELLENT, NIMBLE, CUTTING EDGE, REFLECTIVE, FLEXIBLE, JOYOUS, AND SO ON WITHOUT BEING CONTRADICTED, LAUGHED AT, MOCKED, THREATENED, OR INSULTED BY UNRULY MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC, AND IF WE HAVE TO SURROUND OURSELVES WITH HEAVILY ARMED THUGS TO MAKE THAT POSSIBLE THEN THAT IS WHAT WE ARE GOING TO DO.

JULI QUINN, FORMER CHAIR OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE ACCELERATED SCHOOLS, SPEAKING OUT ON THE JOYOUS (FOR US) OCCASION OF HER RECENT RAGE QUIT.

And it seems that Quinn is not only an unreconstructed racist but she's also a thin-skinned whiny little baby who cannot stand even the slightest criticism. Which is why, according to the agenda for tomorrow's meeting, Quinn is rage-quitting her position on the board because her fans just don't love her enough. Oh, and if that's not fascinating enough, according to this list of proposed officers Quinn's slated replacement as board boss is thuggish real estate grifter Leonard Rabinowitz.¹

MOST LOCAL ZILLIONAIRES AND THEIR THUGGY-BOY MINIONS ARE CONTENT TO LET THE LOS ANGELES POLICE DEPARTMENT EARN ITS ANNUAL $1.5 BILLION BY OPPRESSING WORKING CLASS FOLKS ACCORDING TO ACCEPTED PRINCIPLES OF WHAT PASSES FOR LAW AND ORDER OUT HERE - BUT THAT'S ALL TOO LITTLE TOO LATE FOR TOM NIZETICH OF THE ACCELERATED SCHOOLS - WHO EVIDENTLY WASN'T SATISFIED WITH THE FIVE COP CARS THAT SHOWED UP ON OCTOBER 24, 2019 TO DEAL WITH PROTESTERS.

Of course you remember a few weeks how Juli Quinn, president of the Board of Directors of the white supremacist criminal charter school conspiracy known as The Accelerated Schools, threw her toys from the pram and shut down a meeting just because public commenters said some true things. And the subject that they were commenting on was, of course, the unreasonable firing of long-time employee and union member Hilda Rodriguez-Guzman.

But what you might not have known is that Hilda has been continuing to investigate wrongdoing at TAS via, among other things, the California Public Records Act. And this is how she recently obtained official audio recordings of the last three TAS board meetings. She shared them with me and I'm sharing them with you by publishing them on Archive.Org for download and on YouTube for streaming. Here are links:

And not only was all that stuff revealed but Alonzo was kind enough to produce a set of emails between him and a couple of lawyers, Sarah Kollman and Kimberly Rodriguez, from metaphorically mobbed-up charter school law conspiracy Young Minney & Corr advising him on how to respond to my request and giving him apparently illegal suggestions for how to delay my access to the records. I'm exceedingly familiar with the end result of the anti-CPRA machinations of public agencies, but it's rare, and very interesting, not to mention useful in deciding how to respond and proceed against them, to get a glimpse of the little folks behind the curtain who create the responses sent out over the signatures of their feckless clients.

The emails also include a series of weirdly puerile and self-serving theories on my thoughts about charter schools and my motives for requesting records and related matters, thereby revealing that evidently I myself am an object of investigation and intelligence-sharing¹ amongst the local charterites. For instance, in one email to Alonzo, Sarah Kollman says about me that *"This guy is a "community organizer" and has made it his mission to harass charter schools across LA."*² At one point, Ruben Alonzo identifies me in an email to his tech department as "the same blogger who was attacking Sakshi and Ganas." Which of course is true, see the story here at the tag archive, and isn't validation nice!

As I said, the story begins with my October 13, 2018 request for access to some of ECA's emails. It's really important to provide as specific a description of what one wants as is practicable,³ and here I asked for 2018 and 2019 emails that:

And very soon thereafter Kimberly Rodriguez^Z sent this lengthy and fascinating response to Alonzo in which she reveals her confused conception of my motives, reveals that she's been investigating my background, finding out where I work and what my job is, which is never ever a benign matter, and talking about me with other privatizers. She advises Alonzo in a peculiar mix of compliance and violation and, in an unexpected twist, reveals that she believes I am targeting her personally somehow! Kimberly! Let me relieve your anxiety! I can't tell any of you privatizing lawyers apart from one another! You all look the same to me! My requests are made for the sole purpose of obtaining records. No. Other. Reason. Got it? Good! Now read on!!

1. The sharing of what passes for intelligence amongst these galaxy-brained world-saviors. ↵
2. I guess it's true enough, but I certainly don't harass anyone.
Shame them yes, expose them, sure, point and mock, of course.
But if they feel harassed by free speech then maybe they ought to consider privatizing their own damn selves back to where they belong. ↵
3. The CPRA at §6253(b) requires agencies to respond to requests "that reasonably [describe] an identifiable record or records." Agencies often seize on this as a means of delaying. That is, they'll wait out their response time and then tell the requester that the request doesn't reasonably identify anything so needs to be made more specific. They'll often do this multiple times. Counts as a victory among obstructers, I suppose. ↵
4. At §6253.9(a), which states in part that "any agency that has information that constitutes an identifiable public record not exempt from disclosure pursuant to this chapter that is in an electronic format shall make that information available in an electronic format when requested by any person and, when applicable, shall ... make the information available in any electronic format in which it holds the information." ↵
5. To their credit, by the way, Young Minney & Corr advise their clients to violate the CPRA in any number of ways, but they're pretty good about complying with this requirement. ↵
6. I wonder if scare quotes can be defamatory?!!!1!? ↵
7. Rodriguez, by the way, is a mere associate at YMC whereas Kollman is a partner, so evidently Alonzo isn't as important to YMC as he thinks he is. ↵
8. These deadlines and the extension criteria are found in the CPRA at §6253. ↵

MR. KOHLHAAS IS NO BETTER THAN A DOMESTIC TERRORIST WHO HAS BEEN HARASSING CHARTER SCHOOLS SINCE THE BEGINNING OF TIME AND HE WAS REALLY REALLY MEAN TO SAKSHI JAIN AND NOW HE'S GOING TO BE REALLY MEAN TO YOU TOO SO YOU HAVE TO GIVE HIM THE EMAILS AND DON'T TELL HIM YOU TALKED TO ME CAUSE THAT ALWAYS INDUCES HIM TO MAKE ELEVENTY SEVEN NEW REQUESTS.

SOMEHOW METAPHORICALLY MOBBED-UP CHARTER LAWYER KIMBERLY RODRIGUEZ GOT THE IDEA THAT EVERY TIME I HEAR HER NAME I SEND A BUNCH MORE CPRA REQUESTS. SHE'S RIGHT ABOUT THAT BUT ALSO EVERY TIME I DON'T HEAR HER NAME I SEND A BUNCH MORE CPRA REQUESTS.

And then there's the world's most privatizing law firm, Young. Minney, and Corr.² Famous in these parts for their of counsel guy, H. Wayne Strumpfer and his hapless and feckless but tireless advice to the hapless and feckless but tiresome Ms. Sakshi Jain, founder and CEO of weirdo little co-locationist charter upstart GANAS Academy.³ And then, of course, there is the UTLA, which needs no introduction around here and neither does their monumental strike in January 2019.

1. There is an awful lot more to be written about the LAAC. This is amongst the shadowiest of the shadows in which the power of the charter school conspiracy lurks. I have a lot of evidence on the subject. Look for it coming reasonably soon! ↵
2. They self-style as “Young, Minney & Corr”. I have no idea why (a) law firms never use the freaking Oxford comma like the sane and educated folks they universally purport to be and (b) why they all use those damn ampersands like a bunch of hoitsy-toitsy über-hip bistro menuists leaving the money symbols off the damn prices. I have no idea why but I have a perfectly clear three word idea of why I’m not participating in their damn foibles: because fuck them. Side note: if you send me examples of law firms that either do use the Oxford comma or don’t use an ampersand, well, then, fuck them too. I have no desire to make the content of my mockery consistent as long as my targets are deserving. ↵
3. Which is, as they say, a whole nother story, and you can read it here. ↵
4. It’s fact about snitches that seems to be little-known, possibly because I’m making it up as I type this very sentence, that they are, like diamonds, measured in units of water. Possibly because of the water test for witch detection given that witch rhymes with snitch, maybe other reasons that I haven’t made up yet. ↵ exception. Thus did he ask his lawyer, Janelle A. Ruley, hey friend! Can we do this thing?

And Janelle A. Ruley was all like no freaking way, friend! That's just the very briar patch into which the UTLA seeks to get thrown! Later they will lie about stuff and you'll be busted! And, as it happens, I know this story because subsequently Emilio Pack forwarded an email from Ruley to Christina De Jesus of Green Dot Charter Schools and a couple of pinheaded flacks from the California Charter Schools Association, thus waiving the privilege and creating a public record which, as will happen, I managed to obtain a copy of. Here's a link to a PDF of it and you can read a complete transcription below!

Well, you can guess what's running through Juli Quinn's mind. She's still angry at being called out by Beverly Roberts as a white supremacist. She's still seething over it when Binti's name comes up. The Binti she's talking about here is Binti Yost, whose LinkedIn profile tells us quite a bit about her. It tells us that she's a high mucky-muck at KPMG, which is some kind of zillionaire service provider on such a rarefied level that unless you too are a zillionaire it's not actually possible to tell from their website what they do. I don't even know the meaning of the words.⁷

And when Juli Quinn looks at Binti Yost, zillionaire and zillionaire minion, servant and beneficiary of the vast power of white supremacy, all she can see is that Yost's skin is darker than Quinn's. This is the idiotic level of understanding attained by this person who's in charge of all these precious children. It's astounding, appalling, that anyone anywhere thinks this is OK.

And here, friends, is one of the things that Quinn might learn from these parents that she arrogantly presumes to know anything worth it to them to learn from her, that she wants to spend all Summer training to be useful. And that is that white supremacists come in all colors, spanning the whole spectrum from Quinn to Yost. I doubt one Summer is enough time to teach Quinn this lesson, though. A lifetime isn't long enough.

And it seems that Quinn is not only an unreconstructed racist but she's also a thin-skinned whiny little baby who cannot stand even the slightest criticism. Which is why, according to the agenda for tomorrow's meeting, Quinn is rage-quitting her position on the board because her fans just don't love her enough. Oh, and if that's not fascinating enough, according to this list of proposed officers Quinn's slated replacement as board boss is thuggish real estate grifter Leonard Rabinowitz.¹

By the way, shaming Quinn into quitting her position, making her too uncomfortable to continue, is not only a great victory for the activists responsible, but it's exactly the kind of thing Americans have been doing to tyrants for centuries. This is how free people exert their power. For a powerful statement of this principle, see this Letter to the Inhabitants of the Province of Quebec, sent by the Continental Congress in 1774, explaining that one benefit of a free press is that it allows citizens to organize themselves, a process "whereby oppressive officers are shamed or intimidated, into more honourable and just modes of conducting affairs."

Oh, one more thing! This guy who's taking over the board presidency from Juli Quinn, Leonard Rabinowitz? I have not had time to write much about him yet, about his ridiculously ignorant statements at board meetings, and so on. But here's one little example, this from December 2018. Listen to him right here suggesting to the staff that TAS just get rid of special education all together if it's so expensive. They tell him that they're required to provide special education but he's sure that they can dump it and just take a funding cut.

Which, the staff tells him repeatedly, is not true. Just keep this episode in mind next time some charter school minion is screeching about how charter schools are public schools. Not in the minds of the zillionaires that run them, they're not. They're cash cows and the kids are fodder and if special ed kids cost too much, if it's cost effective to dump them, and if it's allowed, or even if it's not allowed, then that's what they'll do. That's what Leonard Rabinowitz, the soon-to-be-anointed president of the board of TAS, would do, will do. See you tomorrow, friends!

WE'RE REQUIRED TO
CAN JUST OPT OUT
AND JUST GET LESS
FUNDING?!

LEONARD RABINOWITZ, TAKING OVER FROM JULI QUINN AS PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE ACCELERATED SCHOOLS. HE CAN STAND THE HEAT SO HE'S GONNA FIDDLE WHILE THE WHOLE DAMN KITCHEN BURNS DOWN.
HE ALSO REALLY FRICKIN HATES SPECIAL EDUCATION!

And on June 16, 2020 the TAS Board's Finance Committee held a meeting² but notified neither Hilda nor me in advance. A couple days later I sent an inquiry via email to Wayne Strumpfer, one of TAS's many lawyers,³ this one in particular of counsel⁴ to California charter school law powerhouse Young Minney Corr, basically asking "hey friends, what the freaking heck?!"

And five days later, certainly long enough so that we can discount impulsivity as an explanation, Strumpfer sent me his response. In this remarkably idiotic document Strumpfer argues that while the Brown Act may indeed require agencies to send copies of Board agendas to members of the public it imposes no such requirement with respect to committee meetings. In particular, thus spake Strumpfer: "This code section relates to any meeting of a legislative body – i.e., The Accelerated Schools Board. There is nothing in the code section that mentions committee meetings."

5. It's logically possible I guess that Strumpfer did read the relevant section and either didn't understand it or forgot about it. Despite this blog's editorial policy of mocking our opponents for every conceivable thing we can discover or invent, it hardly seems plausible that he read it and didn't understand it. The guy's no genius, to be sure, and he's both ideologically and morally compromised in a way that inevitably warps his perceptions and understanding of the world. I have no doubt that the cancer of privatization has eaten away at his brain to a shocking extent and that as a result there are many, many things he's incapable of understanding. But the consequences to lawyers are so high for this particular kind of error that it seems impossible for him to have made it to this point in his career without being disbarred if he was capable of reading and not understanding a simple code section. Almost surely he either didn't read it before advising, which is very bad, or he read it and forgot about it and didn't reread it before advising. Equally bad. ←

Save

BECAUSE I'M THE DAMN LAWYER, THAT'S WHY.

SEEMS THAT METAPHORICALLY MOBBED-UP CHARTER SHILL MOUTHPIECE WAYNE STRUMPFER DID ACTUALLY PASS THE BAR EXAM AT SOME POINT IN HIS LIFE ALTHOUGH APPARENTLY THAT DOESN'T MEAN THE DUDE CAN READ. IN ANY CASE HE'S HAPPY TO EXPLAIN WHY YOU'RE WRONG, WRONG, WRONG!

And last but never least $15K to charter school contract killer law firm Young, Minney, and Corr.³

So there's this charter school in the Palisades, Palisades Charter High School, which is moderately famous for, among other things, being chock full of both satan-worshipping, privatizers¹ and openly racist baby thugs. Two salient facts about Pali High² are that the supreme boss of the school, Doctor Pamela Magee, earns more money in one year than all but three of the sixty thousand employees of LAUSD, and that a former teacher, Roya Saghafi, is suing the school for the torment she suffered at their racist horrible hands while she worked there.

1. Not sure what that means but lawyers are all about that of counsel jive so I'm just playing along to blend in. It's one of those things where if you just act like you get it no one will ever call you out on it cause they're all just acting like they get it too. ↩

So that very day, the very day I read the email, I popped off this request for records to Jain and her lawyer, the bizarre but weirdly well-dressed little dude known in some circles as H. Wayne Strumpfer, who is of counsel¹ to the world's most privatizing law firm, Young, Minney, and Corr, asking for the damn donation records.

And this very morning, El Strumpfer told me (in an email of course) something along the lines of hey friend! Here are your damn donation records! And this is what he sent me! It's an Excel spreadsheet, which is good, and here's a PDF of it if that's easier for you! And you can see that there's a strange problem with this production, and that is that none of the donors have last names!

And not only that, but there's a suspiciously blank column where their last names would be if Sakshi Jain weren't such a sneaky little liar. And as you may know, the CPRA absolutely explicitly forbids redacting, omitting, or withholding any record or part of a record without invoking an exemption enumerated in the act. And in my CPRAiatic² lifetime I've had much more flimsier flams than this kind of thing pulled on me with respect to totally bogus exemption claims so I just assumed that's what these geniuses were up to, but they hadn't said anything about it.

So I got ready to argue with Mr. S. about this, and then transmitted this pretty calm little message basically asking why no last names and were they claiming any exemptions? And Mr. Of Counsel took exception to my question! And he was all like dude, if we're going to claim exemptions we will say so and therefore never ask us or I will get mad! And clearly he was already mad because it took him only

Save EVERYBODY THE PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN THIS MEETING IS GETTING OUT OF HAND SO LET'S RECONVENE BACK IN OUR TOP SECRET HEADQUARTERS AND ILLEGALLY MAKE SOME TOP SECRET DECISIONS WHERE THIS RABBLE CAN'T KEEP TELLING US WE'RE REALLY BIG MEANIES!

JULI QUINN, FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE ACCELERATED SCHOOLS, MAY BE GONE BUT HER LEGACY, LIABILITY-CREATING ILLEGAL SHENANIGANS, LIVES ON!

THE ACCELERATED SCHOOLS

As you may know I have been making requests of charter schools under the California Public Records Act for about a year now. Some of them have been incredibly cooperative while others, well, you know how it goes, have been less so. And no doubt you're aware by now that the only mechanism to compel compliance with the CPRA is to file a lawsuit. Which brings us to that shady criminal conspiracy known as The Accelerated Schools. I've written a lot about these folks and their cartoonishly wicked white supremacy but, you may have noted, none of it has been based on public records apart from this very first thing I did in April 2019.

So I sent them a few more requests after the one that post was based on and they made a few desultory stabs at answering me in compliance with the law and then stopped responding at all. But as you're probably aware, the situation with this Klown Kar Krew has grown ever more urgent, more of public interest than ever before.

I HAVE ALREADY RULED ON THAT AND YOU WILL NOT BE SPEAKING ANY MORE TODAY, TOMORROW, OR ACTUALLY EVER! IF THERE ARE ANY MORE OUTBREAKS OF DEFIANCE I WILL BECOME EVEN MORE WEIRDLY PETULANT! IGNORE MY GAVEL-TAPPING AT YOUR OWN PERIL, YOU IGNORANT UNRULY PEASANTS!

SOMEBODY GAVE JULI QUINN, MOST HIGH COMMANDER OF THE ACCELERATED SCHOOLS, A GAVEL AND A TABLE TO HIT WITH IT AND NOW SHE THINKS SHE'S PRESIDING OVER THE SUPREME TRIBUNAL FOR THE PROTECTION OF WHITE PRIVILEGE FROM THE IMPERTINENT ATTACKS OF INSUBORDINATE MOBS OR SOMETHING.

In particular amongst the anxious ones there are our old friends at The Accelerated Schools, whose August board meeting I managed to videotape a few weeks ago, capturing, among other interesting episodes, a weirdo white supremacist soliloquy by board president Juli Quinn. And among these episodes was a discussion led by TAS¹ supreme commander of secondary instruction Robert "Bobby" Canosa-Carr about the proposed rating system.

HERE AT THE ACCELERATED SCHOOLS WE ARE VERY PROUD OF THE FACT THAT FULLY ONE HUNDRED AND TWELVE PERCENT OF OUR STUDENTS ARE ENROLLED IN SUPER-ADVANCED HYPERQUANTUM THEORETICAL PHYSICS EVEN THOUGH MOST OF THEM AREN'T READY FOR COLLEGE LEVEL WORK IT STILL SOUNDS REALLY IMPRESSIVE AND NOW ALL OF A SUDDEN LAUSD WANTS TO KNOW IF ANY OF THEM EVER PASS IT? WHY CAN'T THE DAMN DISTRICT PUT KIDS FIRST LIKE WE DO??!

Dear Mr. Skeels:

Thank you for your letter dated January 12, 2021. We are disappointed that your client has elected to move forward with the litigation notwithstanding the significant efforts that The Accelerated Schools ("TAS") has made, in extremely trying times, to provide non-privileged, responsive documents – a voluminous amount – to the six (6) PRA Requests that were all aggregated into Mr. Riskin's Petition and Complaint. But since Judge Strobel has directed the parties to attempt to create a "joint notebook," I'd like to use the remaining time we have to try to at least clarify the matters in dispute.

For instance, regarding the assertion in your letter that your client possesses "dozens" of records from "collateral sources" that were not included in TAS's production back on October 30, 2020, would your client be willing to share those documents now so we can determine now whether or not we agree that the documents at issue are responsive and should have been produced or "reverse engineer" how the documents were missed in TAS's records search effort? It seems to me that it's in both parties' interests to attempt to figure this out now rather than during briefing phase of this litigation.

Please let me know whether you think this approach is feasible.

Best regards,

Jeffrey L. Anderson
